Driving Instructions to Callaghan Country from Downtown Vancouver (Fairmont Hotel Vancouver)

It is approximately 1 hour and 45 minutes from downtown Vancouver to our base in the Callaghan Valley.

	1: Start out going NORTHEAST on W GEORGIA ST / ROUTE 1A / ROUTE 99 toward BURRARD ST. Continue to follow ROUTE 1A / ROUTE 99 over the Lion's Gate Bridge.
	2: Take the HWY-99 / HWY-1A ramp toward WEST VANCOUVER / HORSESHOE BAY-FERRIES / SQUAMISH.
	3: Turn SLIGHT RIGHT onto MARINE DR / ROUTE 1A W / ROUTE 99 N.
	4: Turn RIGHT onto TAYLOR WAY / ROUTE 1A W / ROUTE 99 N.
	5: Turn LEFT onto MATHERS AVE (this is directly after driving under the freeway underpass).
	6: Merge onto ROUTE 1 W / TRANS CANADA HWY W.
	7: Follow the signs and take SEA TO SKY HWY/PROVINCIAL ROUTE 99 N toward SQUAMISH/WHISTLER.
	8: Follow SEA TO SKY HWY N / ROUTE 99 N. About 30 minutes past the town of Squamish, you will see a blue "Recreation Area" sign with icons for cross-country skiing, ski jumping, hiking, and snowmobiling. Just after this, you'll see a sign indicating the venue for the 2010 Olympic Winter Games (Nordic Venue)
	9: Turn LEFT at CALLAGHAN VALLEY ACCESS ROAD and follow this road approximately 8.5km.
	10: Turn LEFT at the Callaghan Country banner, cross over a bridge and follow the plowed road into our parking lot.
	11: WELCOME TO CALLAGHAN COUNTRY! Feel free to drive right up in front of our office to unload your luggage before parking.

Whistler is in the heart of the Coast Mountain Range, and we are famous for our winter storms and abundant snowfalls. While this powder is what makes the skiing here so incredible, it can create difficult driving conditions. Please be sure that the vehicle you are traveling in is equipped with good winter (snow) tires, and be sure to carry chains.
